
Conference on the

Other's Other

- In Memory of Tope Omoniyi -

PROGRAM AND "WHO IS WHO"

Sunday 24 September 2017

18:30 warm-up dinner & drinks. Location "Belgischer Hof"

Monday 25 September 2017

9:00	Judith T. Irvine: We are all Others - but not in the same way, at the same time
10:00	Tomer Gardi: What's the matter?
10:30	Coffee + Tea
11:00	Sara Zavaree: "All spirits are gay" - whispered anecdotes on homosexuality in spirit possession contexts in Zanzibar and Iran John Thabiti Willis: Witch-killers dancing for the White Men: Back talk with a laugh and other ironies in Yoruba masquerade performances
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Axel Fleisch: Sounding gay in Africa Angelika Mietzner: The Hakuna Matata tourist. Extreme othering in an extreme setting Rudolf P. Gaudio. To blow or not to blow 'big grama': the racial politics of English in postcolonial Nigeria
15:00	Coffee + Tea
15:30	Rose Marie Beck: The urban bias as colonial legacy in (Africanist) linguistic theory Katharina Monz: Yeelen '87 - when the Other strikes back Anne Storch: Opacity and the Other
17:00	finis
18:30	Dinner in Hellers Brauhaus, Roonstr. 33, 50674 Köln

Tuesday 26 September 2017

9:00	Michelle Lazar: Towards an epistemological dialogue: Speaking back to the North from a position of ex-centricity
10:00	Ingo H. Warnke: Queering binge research - or, how to become an other to oneself in frantic linguistics

	Mohammed Garba: Ancient Egyptian cultural lexicon for dance in its African context: Comparative linguistic and cultural sources
11:00	Coffee + Tea
11:30	Thabo Ditsele: South African university students' attitudes towards Southern Bantu languages: A legacy of centuries-long linguistic power relations. Nico Nassenstein: "Norzern Connection": Performing and decolonializing northernness in Uganda Felix Ameka: Communicative (in)competence based "Othering"
13:00	Lunch
14:00	Muhammad Muhsin Ibrahim: Film and Propaganda: A Reading of Gumzak's Maula as the Other's Defence Andrea Hollington: The other's other - colonial version and postcolonial subversion in Jamaica Suren Zolyan: On the Soviet and post-Soviet "Otherness" - From "natural countryman" to "monstrous hominoid": The "khachs" and "khachics" in the Russian popular discourse
15:30	Coffee + Tea + Farewell
16:30	finis