

Perception and cognition · a cross-linguistic investigation · Workshop program

24.11.2010 18:00 Welcome

25.11.2010 9:00-17:30 Papers

9:00-10:00 Alexandra Aikhenvald: Perception and cognition in Manambu, a Papuan language from New Guinea

10:00-11:00 Lourens de Vries: The linguistic expression of perception and cognition in languages of the Awyu-Ndumut family in West Papua

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-12:30 Nikolaus Himmelmann: Are perceptions states? Evidence from western Austronesian

12:30-14:00 Lunch Break

14:00-15:00 R.M.W. Dixon: Perception and cognition in Dyirbal

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30 Jose-Luis García-Ramón: 'Seeing', 'hearing' and 'saying' in the IÉ languages

16:30-17:30 Elisabeth Norcliffe: Asymmetries of experience: The grammar of perception in Guambiano

18:30 Dinner Party

26.11.2010 9:00-17:30 Papers

9:00-10:00 Dagmar Jung: Ways of knowing in Beaver Athapaskan: lexical sources and grammatical framing

10:00-11:00 Willem Adelaar: Reflections on the Quechua mirative

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-12:30 Christa König: Evidentials in !Xun

12:30-14:00 Lunch Break

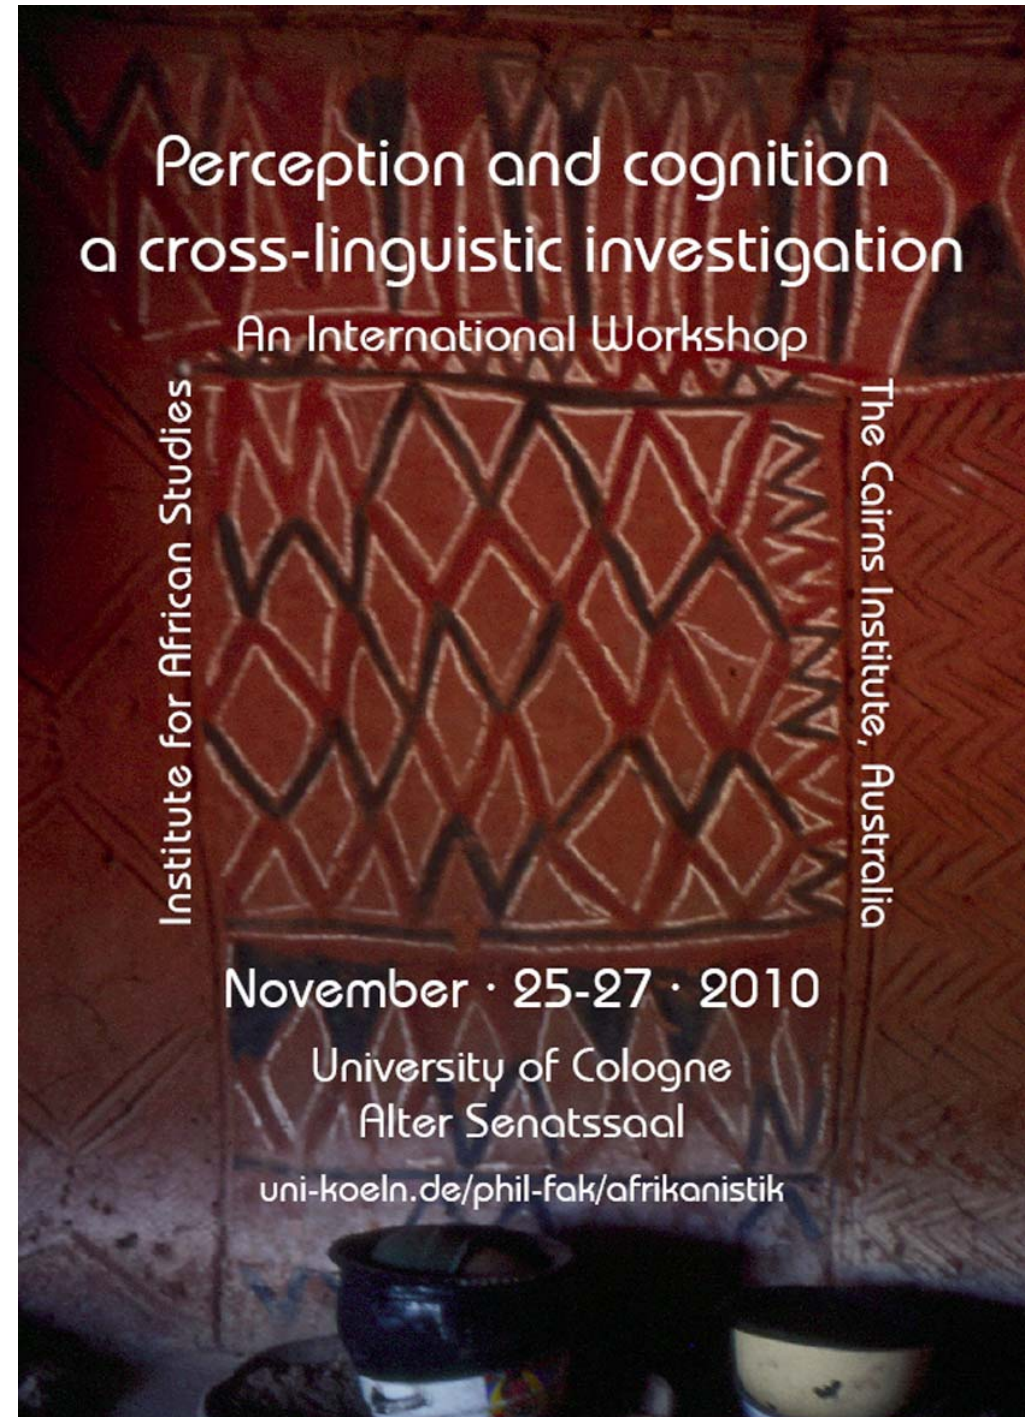

14:00-15:00 Matthias Brenzinger & Anne Maria Fehn: Perception and knowledge in Central Khoisan languages

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30 Marilena Thanassoula: The expression of qualities in Luganda and Lussese with special focus on the color terminology

16:30-17:30 Anne Storch: Knowing, smelling and telling tales in Luwo (Western Nilotic)

- 27.11.2010 9:00-14:00 Papers, publication plans
- 9:00-10:00 Angelika Jakobi: Basic perception verbs and their semantics in Dongolawi (Nile Nubian)
- 10:00-11:00 Gertrud Schneider-Blum: Excite your senses – glances into the field of perception and cognition in Tima
- 11:00-11:30 Coffee Break
- 11:30-13:00 Concluding discussion & publication plans

Perception and cognition a cross-linguistic investigation

An International Workshop

Institute for African Studies

The Cairns Institute, Australia

November · 25-27 · 2010

University of Cologne
Alter Senatssaal

uni-koeln.de/phil-fak/afrikanistik