

Number in Africa and Beyond: Grammar, Semantics and Social Deixis

27.-30. September 2011, Institute for African Studies, University of Cologne

Program

27.09.2011

Arrival of participants

28.09.2011

9:30 Welcome
10:00	G. Corbett	Canonical number and morphological complexity
10:40-11:10 Coffee Break
11:10	A.Y. Aikhenvald	Number, animacy and classifiers: Tariana and its neighbours in north-west Amazonia
12:00-14:00 Lunch Break
14:00	I. Brill	Number and number marking in Nêlêmwa and Zuanga (New Caledonia): morpho-syntactic and pragmatic aspects
14:40	L. de Vries	Number and numerals in Awyu-Ndumut languages of West Papua
15:20-15:50 Coffee Break
15:50	Martina Ernszt	The connection(s) between nominal plural marking, possession, and verbal (pluractional?) marking: The marker ka in N/uu.
16:30 Finish
18:00 Dinner at Hellers Brauhaus

29.09.2011

10:00	O. Hieda	Number in Nilotic
10:40	T. Andersen	Number marking and numerals in Dinka
11:20-11:50 Coffee Break
11:50	B. von Heyking	Number in Boor
12:30	Helma Pasch	Zande Numerals
13:10-14:30 Lunch Break
14:30	F. Lüpke & A. Cobbinah	Number in Bainouk
15:10	B. Caron	Number in South-Bauchi-West Chadic languages

15:50-16:20 Coffee Break
16:20	M. Vanhove	The interaction between verbal semantic derivation and number in Beja
17:00	Y. Treis	Number in Kambaata
17:40 Finish

30.09.2011

10:00	G. Dimmendaal	The distribution of number across categories: A Construction Grammar approach
10:40	A. Storch	Counting chickens in Luwo
11:20-12:30 Concluding discussion
12:30 End of the workshop		