

February 15-16 2016 · University of Cologne

Workshop on Disgust

Organizers: Anne Storch, Asifa Majid

15/2/2016

- 10:00 Welcome
- 10:10 Gün Semin: The behavioral and neural consequences of disgust chemosignals
- 11:10 [Tea break]
- 11:30 Marine Vuillermet: The grammatical expression of fear in Ese'eja (Takanan): also available for disgust?
- 12:00 Nico Nassenstein: Disgusting grammar and annoying sounds: attitudinal insights from the Swahili-speaking parts of Africa
- 12:30 Angelika Mietzner: North meets South: Moral threat, shame, disgust and Kenya's sex-tourism
- 13:00 [Lunch break]
- 14:30 Bettina Lindner: Dealing with disgust in 17th and 18th century medical case reports
- 15:30 Kerstin Hadjer: On wounded healers. Disgust and spiritual healing practices in Germany
- 16:00 [Tea break]
- 16:30 Axel Fleisch: Researching disgust as a contested concept in Africa
- 17:30 [close]
[Dinner]

16/2/2016

- 10:00 Disa Sauter: Concepts, words, and perceptual categories of disgust: evidence from Yucatec Maya
- 11:00 Simeon Floyd: Exclamations of disgust and the Quechuan exclamative word class
- 11:30 Cheikh Mbacké Guéye: Phenomenology and ethics of disgust
- 12:30 [Lunch break]
- 13:30 Felix Ameka: NN
- 14:30 Anne Storch: Disgusting substance: discourse on witchcraft and depression
- 15:00 Elisabeth Steinbach + Sven Eicke: On urine, faeces & stinky fish – conceptions of Ancient Egyptian disgustatory perception
- 15:30 Asifa Majid: Commentary on disgust // Final discussion