

Entanglements, emblematic codes and languaging in tourism

University of Cologne, May 30 2016

Seminarzentrum, Kerpener Strasse 15, 50937 Köln

Programme

9:00 – 10:00	Adam Jaworski	Pride, profit and prejudice
10:00 – 10:30	Anne Storch	Heritage tourism and the freak show
10:30 – 11:00	tea/coffee
11:00 – 12:00	Alison Phipps	Masking languages, skinning languages: tourism, researching multilingually and the performing body
12:00 – 13:30	lunch
13:30 – 14:00	Christiane Bongartz	What's on display? Comments from behind the lens
14:00 – 14:30	Angelika Mietzner	Philanthropic journeys: a culture and project journey to a school in Kenya
14:30 – 15:00	Raymund Vitorio	Postcolonial performativity and mobility in the Philippine tourism industry
15:00 – 15:30	tea/coffee
15:30 – 15:45	Tawona Sithole	Poetry performance
15:45 – 16:15	Nico Nassenstein	The 'hakuna matata' Swahili: partial language acquisition as emblematic linguistic souvenir (Mombasa, Kenya)
16:15 – 16:45	Sara Zavaree	"We have our own Africans" - Public Displays of Zar in Iran

Pre-conference dinner: May 29, 19:00 at Hellers Brauhaus, Roonstr. 33

Global South lecture by Adam Jaworski: May 31 2016, 17:45 – 19:15 (venue: Morphomata, Weyerthal 59)

TRANSLATING CHINESE TOURISTS ABROAD: LANGUAGE, CULTURE AND THE DE-CENTERING OF GLOBAL MOBILITY